

QUESTIONS TO ASK ON YOUR COLLEGE VISIT

GENERAL

How many students attend the college?

What is the four-year graduation rate? Six-year?

What percent of freshmen return to college?

What graduate programs are offered?

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

What activities are offered for students?

How regularly are sporting events attended by students?

What opportunities in the arts and theater are offered?

What clubs or activities are offered for students?

Are intramural sports offered?

What do students do for fun on campus?

What percent of students are involved in Greek life?

CAMPUS LIFE

How safe is campus? What security is in place?

How safe is the community around campus?

How busy is the campus? How noisy?

How integrated is the campus with the community?

Are there opportunities to volunteer in the community?

FINANCIAL AID

What is the total cost to attend?

What scholarships are available to students?

What is the average student debt after graduation?

What percent of students have jobs on campus?

HOUSING & FOOD

What percent of students live on campus?

What housing options does the college provide?

How many students have cars?

How much does it cost to have a car on campus?

What meal plans are available?

What food options are available around campus?

Where is the closest grocery store to campus?

ACADEMICS

What majors are offered?

How are high school AP tests credited at the school?

What is the student-to-faculty ratio?

How many credits does the average student take?

Are first-year classes taught by professors or TAs?

What is the average size of introductory classes?

What is the average size of upper-level classes?

How much access do students have to professors?

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Are there opportunities to study abroad?

Is there an honors program or learning community?

What academic support is offered on campus?

Are career counseling resources offered?

What internships or research positions are offered?

Overwhelmed by the college admissions process?

OnToCollege is here to help. Learn more at www.ontocollege.com/families/college-counseling